Sub: Responsibility of Vessel Safety, Security, Insurance and Sailing after Filing of IGM and Vessel Acceptance

All concerned Trade Members, Shipping Lines and Agents are hereby informed that with immediate effect, any Agent who files the Import General Manifest (IGM) and obtains vessel acceptance at the AP(D)PL Port shall be deemed to have taken full responsibility for the vessel.

Accordingly, the concerned Agent shall be solely responsible for the following but not limited to Safety and security of the vessel while within port limits. All insurance-related matters and claims arise due to any incident, damage, delay or loss.

Ensuring timely and safe sailing of the vessel out of port limits, as deemed necessary by the Port Authority, including in exigencies such as adverse weather, congestion, emergencies, or operational requirements. Compliance with all applicable port regulations, statutory requirements, and directives issued by the Port Authority from time to time.

The Port Authority shall not be held responsible or liable for any consequences arising due to non-compliance, delays, or failure on the part of the Agent to fulfill the above responsibilities after vessel acceptance. All stakeholders are requested to take due note of the above and ensure strict compliance.

This Trade Notice is issued in the interest of safe, secure, and efficient port operations.
